

CHERYL MAKI, MAYOR PRO TEM

First elected to the City Council in 1994, Mayor Pro Tem Maki served for four years, including one term as Mayor. She was elected to a second term on the Council in 2000.

Maki currently serves as a member of the following committees:

- Local Agency Formation Commission
- Sierra College Management Advisory Committee—1990 to present
- Auburn Finance Committee—1994 to 1998 and 2000 to present
- Auburn Economic Development Commission—1998 to present
- Republican Central Committee, District 3 Elected Member—2000 to present

Maki previously served as a member of:

- State of California Workers Compensation Task Force
- Auburn Historic Preservation Task Force
- Republican Central Committee Alternate Member
- Chapa De Indian Health Care Facility Business Advisory Committee
- Placer County Community Services Commission
- Auburn Telecommunications Committee
- Placer County Air Pollution Control Board

Maki, a Placer County resident for 28 years, has been a small business owner in the City of Auburn since 1981. She is the CEO and General Manager of Maki Heating and A/C, Inc. In addition, she is a member of several community organizations including:

- Soroptimist International of Auburn
- American Association of University Women
- Auburn Republican Women Federated
- Placer County Contractors Association
- Auburn Chamber of Commerce

Maki has a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from California Coast University. She is married to Randy Maki and has two children—Steven, who works for Maki Heating and A/C, Inc., and Anthony, who works in the Art Department of Sierra College.